

International Conference on the Research Education Development
«Scientific and methodological problems of talented youth involvement into the field of researches and developments»' ICRED '2024

Moscow, Russia
March 25-28, 2024

INFORMATION
(for participants who do not speak Russian)

1. Application for participation in the Conference and the paper

To participate in the Conference, you should fill up an Application form (see website: <http://www.step-into-the-future.ru/eng>) and draw up a paper reflecting the content of the report. The language of the Application and the paper is English.

The filled-up Application form (or Applications in the case of two or more authors) and the paper should be sent to the email address: tatyanasitf@mail.ru until February 2, 2024.

2. Speech at the Conference

The working languages of the Conference are Russian and English. Duration of plenary reports is 15-20 minutes, session reports are 10 minutes. Participants from the Russian Federation, as well as participants from other countries who speak Russian, will use Russian language. After the presentation there will be time for answers to the questions. A presentation should be prepared for the speech. The presentation file should be sent for technical verification to the email address: tatyanasitf@mail.ru until March 15, 2024.

3. Paper submission guidelines

The paper should contain minimum three thousand words, but no more than eight thousand words, including the list of references.

The paper should contain the following basic elements:

- Title of the paper (without acronyms and abbreviations),
- Abstract (100-120 words),
- Keywords (5-8 words or short phrases),
- Body text of the paper,
- List of references.

The text of the paper should be structured into an introduction, a basic part (one or more titled sections), and a conclusion.

The text is printed at 1.5 intervals in Times New Roman, font size – 12 pt. All headings are centered. At first, the title of the paper is printed: the title of the paper (without acronyms and abbreviations), on the next line - surnames, names of the authors (in full), the line below - name of the country, locality, place of work (in full), position (if the author works in two or more organizations, the author's places of work should be separated by semicolon), academic degree, academic rank, honorary titles (if any).

After the title, there are an abstract and keywords, then the body text of the paper with all required materials (tables, diagrams, etc.). References to literary sources are shown in square brackets and numbered in Arabic numerals - [1], [2], ... [1, 5, 8]. At the end of the body text of the paper, under "References" there are titles of literary sources to be listed in the order as mentioned in the body text. The paper should contain at least eight references to scientific literary sources - publications in scientific journals and collections, monographs, dissertations.

When preparing your speech and paper, it is recommended to familiarize with publications of the Conference co-chairs (a list of publications on the conference topic is available at: <http://www.step-into-the-future.ru/eng>).